

Analysis

CHINA: Employment and Wages 2010

The Chinese labor market statistics reported 130.5 million employed people in 2010. The total wage bill was 4.7 trillion yuan. At an exchange rate of 0.11 EUR/ Yuan it's an equivalent of 520 billion EUR. The following table gives an overview of the per capita incomes in the various economic sectors.

Employment and Wage by Sector	in EUR per year
National Total	3984
State-Owned Units	4201
Urban Collective Owned Units	2639
Others	3881
Grouped by Sector
Farming, Forestry, Animal Husbandry and Fishery	1836
Mining	4812
Manufacturing	3369
Production and Supply of Power, Gas and Water	5201
Construction	3013
Transportation, Storage and Posts	4431
Information Transmission, Computer Services and Softwares	6938
Wholesale and Retail Trade	3665
Accommodation and Catering Trade	2548
Banking	7533
Real Estate	3875
Leasing and Commercial Services	4252
Scientific Research, Technical Services & Geological Prospecting	6094
Water Conservancy, Environment & Public Utilities Management	2793
Resident Services & Other Services	3075
Education	4268
Health Care, Social Security and Social Welfare	4359
Culture, Sports and Recreation	4553
Public Management and Social Organizations	4180